What will I know by the end of this topic?

- Be able to identify the purpose of writing a blog.
- Be able to identify features of a successful blog.
- Understand how to write a blog and blog post.
- Understand how to contribute to an existing blog.
- Understand the importance of commenting on blogs.

Online Safety Follow the SMART rules to help stay safe online.

- S (Safe) Stay safe online by not sharing your personal information.
- M (Meet) Do not meet anyone who you have only become friends with online.
- A (Accept) Do not accept messages and friend requests from people you do not know.
- R (Reliable) Not everything online is reliable. People online are strangers and you can't always trust everything they say.
- T (Tell) Tell an adult you trust if anything happens online that you do not like.

Be careful what you share online! Stop and think before you share information online. Don't see or do anything that you wouldn't do in the real world!

What is a blog?

A blog is a website or webpage that is regularly updated by the author. A blog also allows the reader to post comments or opinion on what is written.

she is the cooking queen

A blog can be about any subject. You could write a blog about school, your favourite team or movie.

A key feature of blogs is that the audience can leave a comment or opinion about what they have read on the blog.

I'm back for another summer of fun! Keep up with me and the bunch as we try out new recipes and adventures. This week I take on Dad and Jack for a BBQ-off, but they don't know about my secret weapon...

We're mixing more than tracks

A DJ comes round to teach Jack how to mix, but ends up helping me mix my dough. Jack's cooking skills leave me a bit salty though! 🧂
